BrandTrust in a nutshell

BrandTrust is the leading management consultancy for effective brands in the German-speaking region. Teams of consultants with experience in different business sectors support companies and top managers with developing and implementing regional and global brand strategies aimed at systematically and sustainably increasing the attractiveness of the brand and thus the company's growth and value. BrandTrust is active across the globe, and in addition to its locations in Nuremberg and Vienna operates offices in Ljubljana.

Why we are here

Saturated markets and the digital transformation are two challenges that will determine the future of companies in nearly every business sector. We are convinced that outstandingly managed brands will make the difference and give companies the needed stability and at the same time agility.

What we do

For companies, a brand can be the basis for extraordinary growth with minimum risk – despite highly intense competition. Because brands are powerful energy reservoirs that can generate exceptional attractiveness. BrandTrust helps top managers to see their brand through different eyes and thereby tap into undiscovered business potential.

What we offer

Superior performances turn into outstanding brands. BrandTrust enables companies to gain more appreciation for their performances:

Brand Leadership:
Strong companies do not follow, they lead.

Brand Positioning:
Interchangeability is the greatest enemy of any company.

Brand Transformation:
Brands are beacons in times of transition.

Brand Performance:
Strong companies can do few things, but do them better than anyone else.

Brand Education:
Strong companies grow from the inside out.

What we don't do

No advertising

No design

No agency work

No valuation

No market research
